

Investment Opportunities

trade.io

Dear Investor,

Part of our mission at trade.io Consulting Ltd. is to bring you quality investment opportunities by onboarding high-profile blockchain projects. We achieve this by maintaining a strict vetting process through which only the most promising ICO projects make it. In the following, you will find an overview of our portfolio. In case you still have any questions, please feel free to reach out to us on investments@trade.io. Our team of consultants looks forward to answering your questions as well as discussing tailor-made solutions for your particular investment strategy and ticket size.
